FINANCIAL & COMMERCIAL.

INDIANAPOLIS, SATURDAY RUNNING, Sept. 16, 1865. Money is very close, and the demand for speculative purposes is very active. The rates continue at from 10 to 12 per cent. from banks, and from 12 to 18 per cent for out-door operations. There is a considerable specu-feeding, and packers are offering to contract at 9%. Calf do Higher than 10 cents has been paid by feeders for extra lots of hogs, but 10 cents may be regarded as the ruling

The demand for the past month has been heavy. The fall stocks are arriving freely, and they have been purchased at prices at which they cannot be replaced Purchases can be made on more favorable terms here. than in the Eastern markets, with better and more general stocks to select from. We have heard of several dealers who have returned from the East and made their purchases here. Two new dry goods establishments have opened out their stocks this week, and another will soon be ready. A new grocery house, Messrs. Elliott, Ryan & Co., will open in a few weeks, in connection with the wholesale liquor business. The wholesale trade of Indianapolis is rapidly increasing, and the stocks keep pace with the enlarged demand. There is no reason why, with our extensive railroad facilities, that Indianapolis should not be the centre of an immense wholesale trade.
